The PTO playground committee wishes to send out a HUGE thank you to students, parents, teachers and staff for their generous Pennies for the Playground contributions! A grand total of $397 was collected.

The PTO has scheduled July 22nd as the build date for the new playground. Volunteers are needed to assemble and install the new equipment. Please let Nora Foster know if you can help: norafoster@gmail.com or 677-6281.

Our annual Field Day, “Super Hero Field Day”, will be held on Monday, June 19 (rain date of 6/20). Parents are welcome to stop by to check out the events, and we also are looking for parent volunteers to help our staff run these events. If you can help out in the morning, please email Sandy Frost at: sfrost@sau4.org. We will begin the day at 8:15 by gathering around the flagpole for the Pledge of Allegiance and Opening Ceremonies.

Our 5th Grade Celebration Night was held on Wednesday, June 14, where Tobias Eckert was nominated for the Katie-Knott Garon Outstanding NHCS CARES Award. Congratulations Toby!

Mr. Palmer and our 5th grade band performing for us!

Throughout the school year, we will be “Capturing CARES” and recognizing students who have been caught modeling our mission statement, “NHCS CARES” (Character, Achievement, Responsibility, Excellence, Spirit). During this week’s lunchtime, the following students were recognized:

- Jacob Bean - Excellence
- Mia DiFilippe - Character, Responsibility, Excellence
- Isaac Kosakowski - Character
- Lydia Peltier - Excellence
