

New Hampton Community School
Celebrates
Read Across Newfound
February 18th-February 22nd

This year's theme: Read Like A Detective

Throughout the week, students will partake in various activities to promote the importance of reading everyday.

Here are some of the highlights of some of the activities:

Monday: Guest readers visit classrooms

Tuesday: PJ Day...Wear your favorite pj's to school and bring a stuffed animal to read with.

Wednesday: Dress Up As Your Favorite Book Character

Thursday: Meet the Author/Illustrator: Dolly Prive

Friday: Guess the Character Assembly

There will also be daily trivia, riddles, surprise Drop Everything And Read time, bulletin board activities, and lots and lots of READING!!!

Please encourage your child to record his/her reading habits on the special reading log that will be sent home on Monday. If you have any questions or want to join in on the fun, please contact your child's teacher.
